Q1 PURPOSE: You are being asked to participate in a research study conducted by Professor Miriam Metzger at the University of California, Santa Barbara and Professor Tobias Dienlin at the University of Vienna, Austria. Participation is voluntary. The purpose of the study is to understand the relation between personality and the desire for privacy.

PROCEDURE: We will ask you 150 questions, which will take approximately 15 minutes. You can skip questions that you do not wish to answer or stop the survey at any time.

PLEASE NOTE: To make sure that participants are finishing the tasks honestly, this study contains attention checks. As long as you read the instructions and complete the tasks in good faith, your response will be approved. If you fail the attention checks, you will be automatically exited from the survey and not paid.

ELIGIBILITY: To be eligible to participate in this study, you must be over 18 years old.

CONFIDENTIALITY: The anonymized data of study will be made publically available in an online database for re-analysis by other researchers. Results of this study may be presented at conferences or published in journals, books, and the popular media.

PAYMENTS: To receive payment, the study needs to be completed and the attention checks need to be passed. Unreasonably fast respondents will not be compensated.

CONTACT INFORMATION: If you have questions about the research, you can contact Dr. Metzger at metzger@ucsb.edu. If you have any questions regarding your rights as a research subject, please contact the Human Subjects Committee at (805) 893-3807 or hsc@research.ucsb.edu. Or write to the University of California, Human Subjects Committee, Office of Research, Santa Barbara, CA 93106-2050
